Management Biography

Donald R. Foust

President
New Penn

Don Foust leads New Penn, a YRC Worldwide subsidiary that is known for high-end service and superior quality. They specialize in next-day and two-day delivery services for less-than truckload shipments in the Northeast United States and Canada. He was named president in 2014 after serving as Division Vice President of Roadrunner Transportation.

Foust has more than 35 years of freight transportation experience and proven expertise in sales and operations. He began his transportation career as a part-time dockworker in college. He then entered a management-training program after graduating from Shippensburg University with a bachelor of science degree in business management.

Foust has diversified experience in short-haul, long haul and asset light transportation models. His previous work history includes over two decades spent with Preston Trucking and one with Yellow/YRC.

Foust is recognized throughout his career in the industry for strong leadership, team building and outstanding results in both sales and operations performance.
