

YRC Worldwide

Management Biography

Dan Olivier

Interim Chief Financial Officer
YRC Worldwide

As interim CFO of YRC Worldwide, Dan Olivier is responsible for corporate finance, treasury, cash management, accounting, tax and risk management/internal audit. He brings to the role expertise in operational finance and strategy.

Olivier has a Bachelor's degree in Accounting from Trinity Christian College and began his career in public accounting. He's worked the past 22 years at YRCW, which has the largest, most comprehensive network in North America with local, regional, national and international capabilities and across its successful brands: Holland, New Penn, Reddaway, YRC Freight and HENRY Logistics. Over the past two decades, Olivier has advanced through various accounting and finance roles at YRCW, most recently having served as Vice President of Financial Planning & Analysis for YRCW, and prior to that, Vice President, Finance for Holland.

