Management Biography

John E. Carr

President
YRC Logistics

As president of YRC Logistics, John Carr leads the YRC Worldwide global logistics management company. He also serves as vice chairman of JHJ International, a Shanghai-based joint venture of YRC Worldwide, and chairman of the board of Jiayu, the company's intra-China ground transportation company. YRC Logistics provides transportation, distribution and global services, enabling clients to improve overall supply chain processes and more efficiently connect with their suppliers and final consumers. Carr joined YRC Logistics in 2007 as president, Americas and Europe.

Carr has over 25 years of experience in the global logistics arena. He has distinguished himself in his work with clients on solutions design and subsequent implementation, demonstrating that execution is the key to success in the supply chain world. Prior to YRC Logistics, Carr served as president-Global Supply Chain Management of BAX Global Logistics. He was group vice president and later executive vice president of Sales & Marketing at Fritz Companies. Carr also held leadership positions at Profit/LEP International (GEO Logistics), Pandair Freight and Behring International.

Carr has a Bachelor's degree in business administration and a Master's degree in counseling psychology from the University of Southern Mississippi. He is a member of the Georgia Technology Institute Advisory Board for the Executive Master's in International Logistics advanced degree program. Carr also is chairman of Kidz2Leaders, a nonprofit organization that helps change the lives of prisoners' children and break the cycle of incarceration.
